GOT BARGAINS .- A few days since we ere passing down Fourth street, when ir attention was attracted by the ring-ing of a small bell in the hands of the who was standing at the Cour use door surrounded by a small ry of admiring friends, who appeared be very much interested in his mud performance. We stepped over ed that the officer of the law pro sed to sell a large amount of re ite, consisting of farms and water rivileges. Lots in the city and lots in ty had failed to pay their taxes on the xes due thereon, with the understand-ag that the former owner would have privilege of redeeming the same n two years by paying back the rest. The sale commenced and we find the could scarcely credit our senses when hard, se of our particular friends, who is a sed an elegant water lot, situated Wheeling creek, for the astonishing fired, and we at once discovered hat here was a glorious opportunity r us to make a speculation and seen country seat and perhaps an oil tract. both expectations, and now consider rselves as one of the landed aris-

racts, one containing thirty poles and he other two acres. For the first we are for the latter one hundred and sixty mills. The first tract is supposed to be located on Short Creek, and from he geological formation of the country ve to be the exact centre of the great il basin. We intend, as soon as a cor pany can be formed for the purpose, to ore for a flowing well, instead of sinking a vertical shaft as has been done by the old fogies who have preceded us in the oil business. We will bore hori-zontally into the side of the hill, until the oil commences to flow, thus preventing the possibility of failure. one sending $10 will secure a share n our never-failing well. Our other purchase will be occupied as the home farm on which we will erect a palatial residence at our earliest convenience. In the meantime architects and master class buildings. They will please make them for different sized buildings, of various styles of architecture, with the understanding that they are to receive heir pay when we have struck oil, or if they prefer it, we will secure them by giving a first class mortgage on the plantation. Upon inquiry, we find that the sheriff is unable to tell us exactly where our tracts are to be found. This makes it necessary for us to employ a find them, even if they should be cov ered by lands belonging to other par-ties. We will be glad to accept the serties. We will be glad to accept the services of any gentleman in this line who will be willing to take a few shares in the never-failing well, and pay cash for the never-failing well, and pay cash for will leave for Cincinnati this evening will leave for Cincinnati this evening old by the sheriff, we desire the next Legislature to pass a Homestead law exempting not less than two acres from for taxes. The two conventions which meet next week to make non nations for the House of Delegates, will doubtless adopt resolutions on this sub ject, and unless the caudidates put in nomination pledge themselves to support this just and humane measure. We will feel ourselves at liberty to vote for whom we please, which will most certainly result in their defeat. The heavy outlay of ready cash involved in this purchase will be counterbalanced by our improved credit with the Bank. ers and tailors of the city, to whom we are disposed to extend a liberal share of our patronage. When our oil ter-ritory is fully developed, we feel confi-dent that we shall be worth considerable, if not more. Our friend of the Wauhoo Club, who purchased the water lot, is preparing to convert it into Wonderful Cure. a fishing ground, and has gone east to procure the necessary fixins' for estab lishing an oyster bed.

TOWNSHIP MEETINGS.—The Union Executive Committee, at its late meet-ing, fixed upon this (Saturday) evening as the time for holding the various township meetings to appoint delegates to the county convention, which will meet at the Court House on Tuesday next. This is a very important matter, and should receive the earnest attenand about citizens in every township. It is desirable that every township shall be represented in the convention, and those interested in the matter should see that meetings are held and

DIED AT CLARESBURG.-A message was received here yesterday, announcing the death of Mr. Wm H. C. Payne, at eing the death of Mr. Wm H. C. Payne, at Clarksburg. His relatives reside in Parkersburg. Mr. Payne, however, had made Wheeling his home for many years past, having been in the employ of several of the leading business houses of the city, as salesman and traveling agent. He had an extensive accountinence and a layor circle of a acquaintance and a large circle of per friends, who will hear of his desta with deep regret.

BODY RECOVERED.—The body of Jas. M'CLELLAN &KNOX Hanaghan, the boy who was drowned at the wharf on Sunday last, was recov-ered at New Martinsville, on Thursday afternoon. The steamer Revenue wa passing up when some one on board observed the body floating by, notice was given to parties on shore, rowed out in a skiff and towed it to shore. The Revenue landed and receiv-ed the remains, which she brought up and delivered to the parents yesterday

FALL BONNETS,—It may interest lady renders in pursuit of the latest fashions to know that bonnets, this fall, ar made lower in the neck, leaving much less room for "waterfalls," which will probably be tabooed together before Christmas. Gilt ornaments are in vogue many of the designs representing coins Cloaks are to be worn full in the back Small sleeves still predominate; some are closely fitting at the hand. Police.-For the last two days business has been dull at the police court, there being but one case each day, Trade in this line is very irregular, it being either a feast or a famine.

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY MEETINGS LAST NIGHT.—The democracy held pri-mary meetings last night in Clay, Mad-ison, Washington and Union townships. ourg papers notice the arrest of Jacob Fox, who represents himself as a citi-zen of Wheeling. It appears that he entered a store and purchased some goods, tendering a fifty dollar treasury proprietor not being able to make the bills and paid for the goods. The Pittsburghers, not being used to seeing a man with so much money, had him arrested and confined on suspicion.

WILL CALL,-Mr. C. A. McClasky now in town and will call upon our the meantime architects and master illders may send in proposals for first ass buildings. There will also first tronage. The Enterprise is a live ne paper, and ably conducted.
